Staff Highlight, Espy!

Hi I'm Espy! I grew up in Cambridge. I have worked at Home Again for almost a year! You can find me helping out on AM shift and sometimes overnight.

I plan on going to nursing school in the future!

Thank you for all you do Espy!

Mother's Day HISTORICAL TIMELINE

1868

Ann Reeves Jarvis organized mothers of former Union and Confederate soldiers to celebrate "Mothers' Friendship Day."

1908

Anna started a letter-writing campaign to national newspapers and politicians and created the Mother's Day International Association.

1850

Ann Reeves Jarvis organized Mother's Day work clubs to Improve sanitary conditions for families in western Virginia.

1905

After Ann Reeves Jarvis died in 1905, her daughter, Anna Jarvis, was flooded with messages of support for her mother's work.

1913

President Wilson signed a proclamation establishing the second Sunday in May as Mother's Day.
